Practical Guide to Your Marriage (2010)

St Britius Church

Practical Guide to Your Marriage

(2010)

We are pleased that you have chosen St Britius for your marriage ceremony. These notes, we hope, will help you to organise the day and make your celebration complete.

Publication of Banns of Marriage

If you live in different parishes, your banns of marriage need to be read in both parish churches.

At St Britius, banns will be published during morning service at 9.15 am on three consecutive Sundays preceding the solemnisation of your marriage. The first publication will normally be about six weeks before the marriage service. We welcome you and your family and friends into church to hear your banns read.

There is a statutory charge for the publication of banns (see back page).

Certificate of Banns

If you are getting married in St Britius Church and if one set of banns has been read in another church, the minister needs to see a certificate of banns from that church prior to your marriage.

If you are not getting married in St Britius Church you will need to provide a certificate of banns to the minister conducting your wedding service. This certificate will be provided on request and incurs a statutory cost over and above the publication of the banns.

Rehearsal

A rehearsal during the week prior to the wedding will be arranged between you and the minister. This will cover the main points of the service and will require the presence of the bride and groom, the parents of both bride and groom where possible, the best man, the person giving the bride away if not the bride's father, bridesmaids, pages, flower girls and ushers. The readers might also wish to come to the rehearsal. The purpose of the rehearsal is to make sure everyone feels happy with their role in the proceedings but this does not preclude family and friends who would like to be there.

Confetti

Please make sure that the ushers know that no confetti is to be thrown in the church or in churchyard, only outside beyond the gates. It is preferable that the confetti is biodegradable.

Wedding Blessings

To all intents and purposes a wedding blessing is the same as a marriage service without signing the registers which will have been done at the Registry Office. There are no banns and certificate. With the exception of these items our charges are the same as for a marriage service.

Witnesses

You will need to invite two of your friends or family to witness your wedding contract by signing the register. They need to be over 18 years of age.

Lesson Readers

You may wish to ask one or two of your friends or family to read a piece of poetry, prose or scripture in church. The choice must be made with the agreement of the minister and must include a bible reading.

Payment

The basic costs for a marriage service are laid down by the Church of England (Table of Parochial Fees) and include the banns and the marriage service. Where appropriate, you will be asked to pay for the organist and bell ringers. An invoice will be provided by the Treasurer and payment must be received by him at least 2 weeks before the wedding date. If payment is to be made by cheque, this should be made payable to Brize Norton PCC otherwise the payment should be made in cash. Please note that the service cannot proceed unless full payment is received prior to the service.

The costs of any flowers will be settled separately as agreed with Mary Holmes and payment will be required before any flowers are ordered.

See back page for costs.

Marriage Service

Your Order of Service

You will need to choose the hymns and readings (one from the bible). The running order for the service is provided by the minister. You may like to use a picture of the church on your Order of Service. A choice of pictures along with details of the church's 900 year history can be found on our website at www.brizenorton.org.uk/community

Organist

We can provide an organist at a cost (see back page). However if you have someone who can play the organ we can liaise with them about access for practice.

It is important to make your choice of hymns at an early stage and to liaise with the organist about the specific tunes and the music for coming into church, during the signing of the register, and going out of church. This can be done through the minister or directly with the organist.

Photographer/video

Your photographer will be allowed to take photographs in the church at certain points in the service. This will be agreed between yourselves, the photographer and the minister.

Photographs can be taken outside the church and, during inclement weather, inside the church after the service.

Cars

The wedding cars, i.e. the bridal car, the bridesmaids' car, will have free access to the driveway around the war memorial in front of the church. You should advise your guests that they should park in the car park at the Elderbank Hall.

Flowers

For normal church services, there is usually one pedestal arrangement at the altar. If you would like to have flowers arranged by Mary Holmes and her helpers, this would be on the condition that the flowers remain in church after the wedding for the enjoyment of the congregation. However it may be possible to arrange a table decoration that can be taken to the reception. Please ring Mary on (01993) 843856 to arrange a meeting to discuss your requirements and colour schemes. See back page for guidance on costs.

If you prefer to have commercial flower arrangements, please use Mary as your contact between the church and the florist in order to discuss access and positions of flowers. The florist will have to provide pedestals, bowls, etc.

During the seasons of Christmas, Easter, Harvest (first weekend in October), and our Flower Festival (second weekend in June) the whole church is decorated by members of the congregation. Once in place flowers cannot be moved for weddings. If your wedding date coincides with one of these events, a small donation towards the costs of the church's flowers would be welcome and then we can incorporate your colour scheme into the arrangements nearest to where the ceremony will take place.

If your wedding happens to be on the same day as another wedding, we will need to liaise between wedding couples as to shared costs and differing colour schemes.

Bells

We have a beautiful peal of six bells which can be rung for your wedding, subject to the availability of our bell ringing team. During winter months it may not be possible to ring them. We need the maximum notice to arrange for the bells to be rung. See back page for cost.

Timing of your Service

The wedding service lasts for approximately 50 minutes, however in organising your reception you will need to allow 2 hours from the start of the wedding service before the reception begins plus any travelling time from St Britius to the reception.
